1. every dog can have access to the beach if identified with microchip or if tattooed; dogs must be the anti rabies vaccinated.
2. it is recommended that owners, for the well being of the people and their pets, periodically do the vaccination prophylaxis for the main infective diseases (parasites) and do not take dogs with cardiovascular pathologies to the beach.
3. every person, before coming to the beach, must be in possession of a flea collar or equivalent; on the beach a leash is required (a measure of not more than 1,50 meters) permanently fixed to the ground, possibly to a pole frame firmly in the sand so as to prevent it getting undone.
4. the owners or holders must also bring with them a muzzle, hard or soft, to be applied to the dog in case of risk for the safety of people or animals at the request of our staff or authorities.
5. the owner must be certain that the dog cannot reach the people that are near it; he or she must place a bowl always full of water near the dog at a reachable distance and be certain that the pet has some shade to lie in .
6. dog – waste must be picked up and thrown in the appropriate bin, urine instead must be washed away with abundant sea water by the owner of the dog.
7. the dog's bathing area is included in the water pool opposite the equipped area strand and is visible by floating signals.
8. access to the sea is allowed to no more than five dogs at a time that must be immediately put on a leash as soon as they get out of the water ; the owner of the dog must be present at all times.
9. the owner must do his best to avoid continuous barking or a too lively behaviour from their dog; if not he will have to leave the beach. This faculty can also be reserved to the surveillance and their unchallengeable judgement. Access to the beach is anyhow prohibited to animals with an aggressive syndrome or females on heat.
10. every two hours the owner should take his dog out of the beach area for a walk.
11. the manager of the beach resort will decide which beach umbrella to give to each family with a dog and has the faculty to make any changes he or she may think is necessary in order to give an adequate service to all.
12. dogs should never be left unattended and free to roam: liability (civil and criminal) for the damage caused is from the owner. Our staff will monitor compliance.
13. if this regulation is not kept into consideration and not followed carefully, the lawbreaker will have to abandon the beach resort; moreover the Directors, may contact the competent administrative authorities and health officers (police or local health services) in case there are any owners that do not obey the law (eg. The lack of microchip, disrespect for those rules concerning aggressive dogs, etc.)
